FACILITIES

The Oklahoma State Equestrian team utilizes a number of areas for their practices and upkeep of their horses.

The Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center is located on a 50-acre farm located on the corner of McElroy and Western and a 44-acre pasture on Sangre Road. The main practice arena is the Atherton Family Arena, which is a 135 by 270 square foot covered arena that has wind screens on the north and west sides. The team also uses the 140 by 75 square foot outdoor arena and the Totusek Indoor Arena, which is a 100 by 200 foot climate controlled arena.

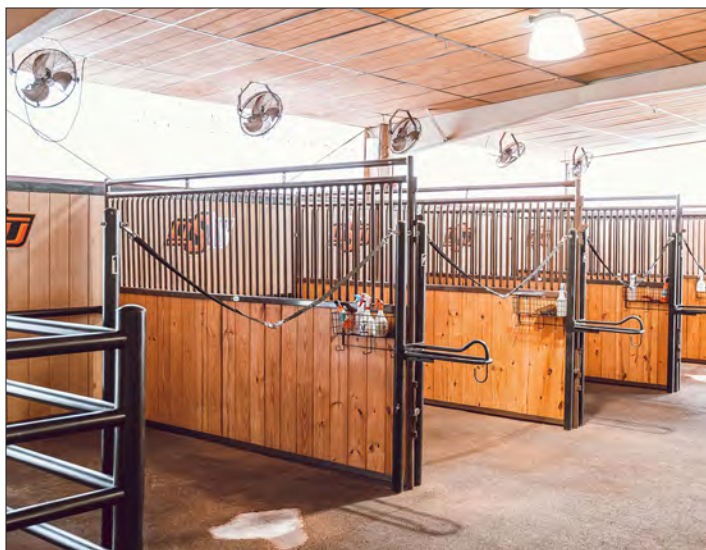

The team maintains approximately 60 head of horses used for practice and NCEA collegiate competitions. The horse herd consists of both Western and Jumping Seat horses that were acquired from donors across the country.

The Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center consists of a saddling barn that includes coaches' offices, locker rooms, a tack room and an athletic training satellite office. It also has a 24-stall horse barn with outdoor runs and several paddocks and pastures.

The Nielson-Vargo Team Building became operational in 2021. It is a multipurpose facility that includes a team lounge with study area and a fueling station.

The numbers OSU has compiled in over two decades of competition under Sanchez speak for themselves.

- 2022 Overall NCEA national champions
- Seven NCEA national championships
- 10 Big 12 Conference championships
- 75 All-Americans
- 23 individual national champions
- Over 150 Academic All-Big 12 performers

Under the guidance of Sanchez, Oklahoma State Equestrian has made its presence known at the NCEA National Championships every year, winning the overall title in 2022 and individual titles in 2000, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2013. Sanchez also led the Cowgirls to Big 12 crowns in 2009, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2016, 2018, 2021, 2022, 2023 and 2024.

As one of the most respected and successful equestrian coaches in the country, Sanchez has been essential in the sport's move toward varsity recognition.

A native of Colorado, Sanchez began his intercollegiate coaching career at New Mexico State in 1993 and quickly organized one of the nation's top programs in the IHSA. Under his leadership, NMSU won national titles in 1995, 1997 and 1998.

Sanchez moved to Stillwater to launch Oklahoma State's team in 1999. In his 26-year coaching career at OSU, 17 of his qualifying teams have placed in the top four at the national level. Additionally, he has coached an impressive 23 riders to individual national championships and 13 riders to reserve championships.

OSU's success under Sanchez began almost immediately as his 2000 team won the program's first NCEA national championship. The Cowgirls then won four-straight NCEA titles from 2003-06.

During his years leading the Oklahoma State program, Sanchez has earned his share of individual coaching accolades, including being named the NCEA Coach of the year in 2022 and collecting Big 12 Coach of the Year honors five times.

In 2022, Sanchez led the program to new heights, guiding the program to both Big 12 and NCEA overall national championships, earning him NCEA Coach of the year honors.

In 2013, he earned both NCEA and Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year honors after leading the Cowgirls to their third Big 12 Championship and third NCEA Western National Championship.

In 2014, Sanchez added another impressive accomplishment to his resume, becoming the first coach in Big 12 Equestrian history to lead his team to three consecutive Big 12 championships. Sanchez and the Cowgirls would repeat this feat from 2021-23, and has yet to be matched by other Big 12 programs.

During his time at Oklahoma State, Sanchez has coached numerous All-America and All-Big 12 honorees. Since 2011, Stillwater has been home to 75 NCEA All-America selections.

Thirty-eight different Cowgirls have earned All-America honors. Five of those - Lauren Halvorson, Harley Huff, Kary Krshka, Abigail Brayman and, most recently, Jojo Roberson - earned All-America accolades four times in their distinguished careers, while the list of OSU three-time All-Americans includes five Cowgirls: Jenna Blumer, Jorden Davis, Ebba Lange, Lindsey McMullen and Hannah Mitchell.

Under Sanchez's watch, 17 Cowgirls have been named Big 12 Rider of the Year in their respective disciplines, and OSU has had 57 All-Big 12 honorees since the conference began recognizing those in 2012.

Sanchez's riders have found great success in the classroom as well. The program's emphasis on academic success is evident in the team's frequent appearances on Big 12 and NCEA honor rolls. OSU has earned 205 selections to Academic All-Big 12 teams, and five Cowgirls have been named the Big 12 Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Sanchez completed the coursework for his M.A. in agricultural education at New Mexico State and received his B.S. in equine science from Colorado State. He is a carded judge, breeder and competitor within the American Quarter Horse Association.

Larry and his wife, Julie, who is a registered nurse, have two children, a son, Colton, and a daughter, Caitlyn.

COACHING STAFF

Laura Brainard
Assistant Coach | Western
Sixth year at OSU

Laura Brainard is entering her sixth year as Oklahoma State Equestrian's assistant western coach.

During her time in Stillwater, Brainard has coached 12 All-Americans and a Big 12 rider of the year, and nine Cowgirls have earned All-Big 12 honors under her tutelage.

In her first season, one shortened by the COVID-19 pandemic, the Cowgirls posted a 9-3 record, and Harley Huff and Emma Verplank earned first-team All-America honors in horsemanship. Huff was also named the Big 12 Reining Rider of the Year, while Verplank, Huff and Hannah Mitchell collected All-Big 12 accolades.

Last season, under Brainard, Claire McDowall earned second-team All-American status in horsemanship. McDowall garnered All-American status for the second consecutive year. She also coached Tristan Bagby and Emma Filiatreau to their respective first All-Big 12 selections. On the year, Brainard's horsemanship unit compiled 38 wins and five MOPs while the reining squad tacked on 38 wins and four MOPs. OSU went 9-7 on the year and won its fourth consecutive Big 12 title. The Cowgirls went to the national semifinals in Ocala, Fla., where her western squads collected 11 total wins.

In 2022, Brainard was key component of a historic Cowgirl team that captured both a Big 12 and NCEA overall national championship for the first time in program history. Two of Brainard's western riders, Roberson and Molly Mitchell, earned second-team All-America honors.

In 2021, Brainard helped the Cowgirls capture the seventh Big 12 championship in program history. Under her guidance, Huff captured Big 12 Horsemanship Rider of the Year and Big 12 Reining Rider of the Year honors and was named a second-team All-American, while Roberson was tabbed an All-American for the first time in her career. Brainard's reining and horsemanship teams also helped advance the Cowgirls to the semifinals of the NCEA Championship.

Brainard spent the 2019-20 season at Baylor, where she assisted in coaching the Bears' reining squad to a No. 1 ranking heading into national competition. Her guidance helped Sydney Scheckel to first-team All-America and Big 12 Reining Rider of the Year honors. Brainard's Bears took home the 2019 Big 12 Championship and the horsemanship team advanced to the semifinals of the NCEA Championship.

Before her time at Baylor, Brainard coached three years at Georgia as the assistant western coach. She helped lead the Bulldogs to back-to-back SEC Championships and back-to-back NCEA National Championship runner-up finishes in 2017 and 2018.

Two of Brainard's former riders at Georgia, Graysen Stroud and Jordan Carpenter, garnered All-America honors in reining in the 2019-20 season. Stroud was also named Co-NCEA Reining Rider of the Year.

In the 2017-18 season, Brainard helped coach two SEC Riders of the Year and totaled five All-America honors.

During Brainard's three years at Georgia, her Western student-athletes collected 13 All-America selections.

Prior to her time at Georgia, Brainard was a volunteer assistant coach at her alma mater, Texas A&M, following a standout career as rider.

In her four years with the Aggies, Texas A&M collected consecutive western national titles in 2011 and 2012, as well as the overall team title in 2012. She earned All-SEC status in Horsemanship her junior season.

Brainard graduated with a B.S. in Agriculture Economics from Texas A&M in 2013 before completing her Master of Science degree in Agricultural Leadership, Education and Communications in May of 2015. She is also a third generation NRHA judge.

Carter Anderson

Assistant Coach | Jumping Seat
Third year at OSU

Carter Anderson is entering her third season as one of Oklahoma State's Jumping Seat assistant coaches.

Last season, under Anderson, Riley Hogan earned honorable mention All-American in fences. Hogan and Grace McReynolds collected All-Big 12 accolades. Anderson also coached two Big 12 Riders of the Month and an NCEA Rider of the Month. Last season, Anderson's fences team collected 44 wins, while the flat squad earned 37 wins. The Cowgirls went to the national semifinals where her squads earned seven total wins.

In her first season at OSU, Anderson coached three Cowgirls to All-American status as OSU won its third consecutive Big 12 title. Sydney North, under the tutelage of Anderson, earned Big 12 Fences Rider of the Month in February after earning three points in three meets. Anderson's Jumping Seat Unit collected 13 total MOPs and over 80 victories.

Anderson joined the Cowgirls after one season as an assistant coach at the University of Tennessee at Martin, where she was named the Eastern College Athletic Conference Equestrian Assistant Coach of the Year.

In her one season on the UT-Martin staff, Anderson oversaw a group of jumping seat riders that was among the ECAC conference's best. The jumping unit collected 44 victories and 10 MOPs in fences to go along with 38 wins and eight MOPs in flat.

UT-Martin also produced three All-ECAC honorees from Anderson's group, with Kelby Kane and Haley Kane being selected for fences and Julia Gilman for flat. In addition, Kane was named the NCEA and ECAC Fences Rider of the Year, becoming the first UT-Martin rider to ever claim the awards.

With the help of Anderson's supervision, the Skyhawks were ranked in the top 10 of the National Collegiate Equestrian Association polls nine different weeks. The team finished the year 8-8 with a 7-2 record against ECAC opponents and made their second straight appearance in the conference's championship meet.

Before joining the UT-Martin staff, Anderson had an impressive collegiate career at the University of Georgia, including being a member of the 2021 NCEA National Champion Bulldog squad.

Anderson was also a member of two NCEA reserve championship teams at Georgia, in 2018 and 2019, and contributed to a Southeastern Conference title in 2018, as well.

In 2019, Anderson was elected by her peers and coaches at Georgia as a team captain and remained in that role until her final season in 2021.

A native of Knoxville, Tenn., Anderson graduated cum laude from Georgia in 2021 with a degree in journalism. She was named to the NCEA Academic Honor Roll and the SEC Honor Roll every year while she was at Georgia (2017-2021).

Second year at OSU

Larry Sanchez announced the hiring of Jody Brainard in September 2023.

"We are very excited to have Jody Brainard join our team," Sanchez said. "The experience he brings is going to benefit our team greatly. His insight, from serving as Chair of Officials for the NRHA, will give our team an edge in being nationally competitive year in and year out."

In his role, Brainard will serve as a consultant for OSU's reining squad and will co-coach the event alongside his niece, Laura Brainard.

Brainard brings over 40 years of experience to OSU's team, highlighted by his time spent as a professional horseman and his established credibility in training horses. "Jody's knowledge and experience is truly unmatched," Laura Brainard said. "I'm extremely grateful to have the opportunity to work alongside him. There's no question that we will be able to elevate our reining squad to the next level this year and have a ton of fun doing it."

Reining has been part of Brainard's life since he was young, as he is the son of legendary horseman and member of the NRHA Hall of Fame, Jack Brainard. He resides on his ranch in Mulhall, Okla., with his wife, Amy.

Cowgirl Equestrian looks for another championship-caliber season with returning stars and new talent

Two years after it's first overall NCEA national championship, Oklahoma State Cowgirl Equestrian had yet another successful season in 2023-24, highlighted by its fourth straight Big 12 title.

The Cowgirls finished the season 9-7 and reached the semifinal round of the national tournament.

Fall competitions proved to be challenging for the Cowgirls, starting the year 2-5. The Cowgirls opened the season with a 10-9 loss to eventual NCEA runner-up TCU. That loss became the second straight opening meet loss.

Spring competition turned things around for the Cowgirls, finishing the regular season 4-1. Wins against Big 12 rivals Baylor and Fresno State helped bring the Cowgirls closer to an even record, as well as a home win against eventual NCEA champion SMU. The lone loss came rival TCU in Fort Worth.

Led by Graduates Sydney North and Grace McReynolds, the Cowgirls came away with two big wins in the month of February. McReynolds earned Big 12 Fences Rider of the Month for February after going 3-0 and earning an MOP against SMU. McReynolds also earned NCEA Rider of the month in March after going 3-0 and arning a career best 88 at Fresno State.

After taking a 14-6 loss to TCU, the Cowgirls wrapped the regular season on the road with two wins at Fresno State and UC Davis.

OSU entered the Big 12 tournament with a 6-6 record and a strong spring season. Hosted in Waco, the Cowgirls took advantage of enemy territory.

The Cowgirls bested Baylor, 14-6, in the first round, then TCU in the championship round with a 10-9 nail-biter. For the Cowgirls, it marked the first time they've won four straight Big 12 titles and tenth overall.

Fresh off a conference title, the Cowgirls took on Auburn for the first time of the year in the first round of the national tournament. They bested the Tigers 10-8, securing a spot in the semifinal round, but the Cowgirl's season ended with a 11-9 loss to SMU.

Two Cowgirls earned All-American honors on the season. For the second straight year, Claire McDowall took home second team honors in horsemanship. Riley Hogan earned honorable mention in Fences, her second time earning All-American status.

Sixteen Cowgirls earned academic All-Big 12 and 11 earned a spot on the NCEA All-Academic team.

With several key starters returning to the lineup and new additions to the team, OSU is poised to compete for another national championship.

A photograph of a university building with a prominent clock tower featuring a green dome and a spire. The building is constructed of red brick with white architectural details. In the foreground, there are trees with bright yellow autumn leaves. A horizontal band with orange diagonal stripes runs across the middle of the image, containing the text "Campus of Champions".

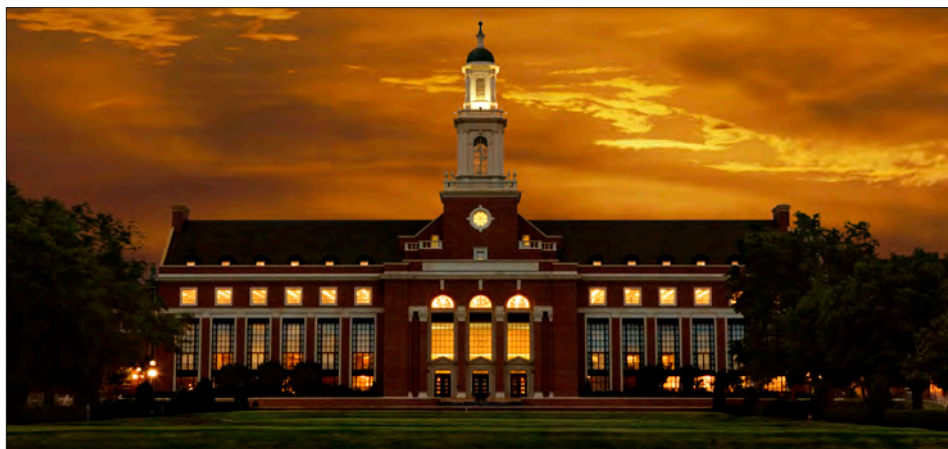

Campus of Champions

Oklahoma State University

A land-grant institution with more than 35,000 students across a five-campus system, we've graduated more than 264,000 students to serve the state of Oklahoma, the nation and the world.

A bold aspiration

Oklahoma State University intends to become the nation's preeminent Land-Grant university

From their founding in the nineteenth century, Land-Grant universities have carried a distinctly American charge captured in the words of the Morrill Act of 1862:

"to promote the liberal and practical education of the industrial classes in the several pursuits and professions in life."

Through teaching, research and Extension, the Land-Grant institutions steward a timeless responsibility: to raise successive generations of servant-leaders; to engage as vital members of their communities; to bring research and new knowledge to bear to prepare students for the world they will enter; and to extend critical knowledge and expertise to meet society's most pressing problems — the "Grand Challenges" facing civilization.

Three Pillars

Instruction

OSU provides the highest quality education in a variety of different majors using the latest teaching methods.

Research

OSU is creating the next generation of scientists, thinkers and scholars through its tradition of research excellence.

Extension

OSU's Cooperative Extension connects people across the nation and world with the latest research and practical solutions.

Core Values

Community

Foster a strong sense of community based on shared governance among student, faculty, staff and administration.

Service

Serving others is a noble and worthy endeavor and distinguishing feature of a land-grant institution.

Steward of Resources

Dedicated to the efficient and effective use of resources and sustainability.

Excellence

Seek excellence in all endeavors and commitment to continuous improvement.

Integrity

Commitment to the principles of truth and honesty.

Intellectual Freedom

Believe in ethical and scholarly questioning that respects the rights of all to freely pursue knowledge.

University President Dr. Kayse Shrum

Dr. Kayse Shrum

University President

Fourth Year | OSU College of Osteopathic Medicine

Oklahoma State University President Kayse Shrum is in her fourth year leading the largest university system in Oklahoma.

A collegiate student-athlete herself, Dr. Shrum competed as a softball pitcher at Connors State College before continuing her education at Northeastern State University and the University of Arkansas. She then earned her doctorate of osteopathic medicine from the OSU College of Osteopathic Medicine.

Her husband, Darren, was also a collegiate student-athlete at the University of Central Arkansas, and the two make it a point to attend as many athletic events as possible in order to recognize the hard work and dedication of OSU student-athletes, coaches and staff.

Since taking office in July 2021, Shrum has forged a new chapter for OSU — boldly facing challenges like conference realignment and COVID-19 while positioning the university for future success by embarking on a strategic planning process. The systemwide We Are Land-Grant strategy guides OSU's future and is securing its position as the nation's premier land-grant university — with a focus on creating and discovering solutions to societal problems, providing students with a world-class education and sending them into the world after graduation well-equipped to handle the challenges before them.

Throughout Shrum's tenure, OSU has set multiple enrollment records. During the 2023 school year, OSU saw the highest undergraduate enrollment in school history, the largest first-time freshman class in school history while also becoming Oklahoma's largest university system. OSU has also set enrollment records for non-residents, Honors College, Spears School of Business, Native American, first-generation, online students and new graduate students.

OSU has maintained flat tuition and mandatory fees for three straight years, emphasizing student access, STEM education and workforce readiness. In December 2023, Shrum launched OSU Polytech, which builds on OSU's decades of experience in applied and technical learning to directly address Oklahoma's high-tech workforce needs. Currently, over 3,700 students are enrolled in 60 polytechnic education programs in person and online across the system.

Her influence and forward-thinking approach have been instrumental in launching OSU's trans-disciplinary institutes, including the 2022 opening of the OSU Human Performance and Nutrition Research Institute, or HPNRI. The institute harnesses OSU's expertise in human performance and nutrition science, and is coupling it with advanced knowledge from OSU's elite strength and conditioning staff to deliver better health outcomes for all Oklahomans. One key area of HPNRI's focus is on athletic trainers across the state.

Shrum's leadership, professional and civic contributions have led to notable recognition and rewards. Her honors include:

- ▶ 2023 Special Olympics Oklahoma Barry Switzer Award of Excellence
- ▶ 2022 Oklahoma Women's Hall of Fame induction
- ▶ 2022 Oklahoma Osteopathic Association DO of the Decade
- ▶ 2020 "Journal Record" Health Care Hero

- ▶ 2020 Osteopathic Founders Foundation Outstanding Physician Award
- ▶ 2020 Becker's Hospital Review "100 Academic Medical Center CEOs to Know"
- ▶ 2019 Connors State College Alumni Hall of Fame induction
- ▶ 2019 Tulsa Osteopathic Medical Society Osteopathic Impact Award
- ▶ 2019 "Journal Record's" 2019 Woman of Year Award
- ▶ 2018 Newsmaker Award by the Association for Women in Communications Tulsa Chapter
- ▶ 2014 Oklahoma Osteopathic Association's Outstanding & Distinguished Service Award
- ▶ 2013 Connors State College Athletics Hall of Fame induction

1999-2002	Oklahoma State Alumni Association	Senior Director of Field Operations
2002-03	Oklahoma State Foundation/ College of Business Administration	Director of Development

2017-pres.	Oklahoma State Athletics	Deputy Athletic Director from 2017-21 Athletic Director from 2021-present

Chad Weiberg assumed the role of Oklahoma State Vice President and Athletic Director in July of 2021 after having spent the previous four years as OSU's Deputy Athletic Director. In this role, Weiberg serves on President Kayse Shrum's leadership team that helps advance Oklahoma State's land grant mission and President Shrum's strategic initiatives for the institution.

The timing of his promotion to athletic director lined up with seismic shifts in national landscape of college sports. Realignment within the Big 12 Conference and the emergence of Name, Image and Likeness both occurred within a month of Weiberg's start date.

With that as the backdrop, in the modernized world of college athletics, Weiberg's OSU has been a force in competition. A sampling of Oklahoma State's accomplishments during his three years as athletic director:

- ▶ Oklahoma State won team national championships in equestrian (2022) and men's cross country (2023) and the women's tennis team won the 2024 ITA indoor national title.
- ▶ OSU won 15 Big 12 team conference championships across its 18 varsity sports.
- ▶ Oklahoma State finished in the top 25 of the Learfield Directors' Cup standings each year.
- ▶ Oklahoma State won the all-sports Phillips 66 Bedlam Series over in-state rival Oklahoma twice and tied the Bedlam Series once.
- ▶ The Cowboy Football team beat No. 5 Notre Dame in the 2021 Fiesta Bowl, had a winning record over Oklahoma and twice appeared in the Big 12 Championship Game.
- ▶ Oklahoma State produced 140 All-Americans, the highest three-year total in school history.

OSU's broad-based success reflects how the department has evolved in ways that produce a meaningful advantage. Some of key initiatives developed within OSU Athletics under Weiberg:

- ▶ The creation of a name, image and likeness department with a dedicated full-time director and assistant director.
- ▶ A partnership between OSU Athletics and the Spears School of Business to create the innovative Brand Squad, which pairs the best and brightest students in OSU's famed Spears

Athletic Director Chad Weiberg

As athletic director, Chad Weiberg hired head coaches Jacie Hoyt (women's basketball), Steve Lutz (men's basketball) and David Taylor (wrestling).

School of Business with student-athletes for the purpose of creating a personal brand and managing NIL opportunities, as well as coordinating with supporters establishing new collectives to provide NIL opportunities for OSU student-athletes.

- The creation of the POSSE STAR Fund to provide student-athletes financial rewards for achieving academic success in accordance with the Supreme Court ruling on Alston vs. NCAA.
- The creation of a student-athlete leadership and professional development program with a dedicated full-time director and assistant director to help best position student-athletes for success beyond sports.
- Numerous structural and cosmetic upgrades to Boone Pickens Stadium geared toward improving the fan experience.
- Launching of the OSU Athletics Vision Plan, which is highlighted by a new Human Performance and Innovation Complex and football center, upgrades to Boone Pickens Stadium and entirely new competition facilities for softball and indoor track and field, practice facilities for wrestling and men's and women's basketball and upgrades to Karsten Creek Golf Course, the Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center and to Gallagher-Iba Arena.
- A partnership with Sport and Story to create OSU's own streaming service, OSU Max.

Weiberg has made three head coach hires, successfully recruiting Jacie Hoyt (women's basketball), Steve Lutz (men's basketball) and David Taylor (wrestling) to Stillwater.

Oklahoma State hosted NCAA Championship events in men's and women's cross country (2022), wrestling (2023) and men's and women's tennis (2024) under Weiberg, providing the Cowboys and Cowgirls with added visibility on the national level.

Also on the national level, Weiberg was on the College Football Playoff Future Format Athletic Directors Focus Group and beginning in September of 2024, joins the NCAA Division I men's basketball committee for a five-year term.

In 2023-24, he served as chair of the Big 12 Athletic Directors.

Prior to his elevation to athletic director, Weiberg served as OSU's Deputy Athletic Director from 2017-21. In that role, Weiberg was the chief operating officer, second-in-command and responsible for the day-to-day operations of the athletics department. He served as Athletic Director Mike Holder's administrative liaison for football and men's basketball and was responsible for football scheduling.

During his time as Deputy AD, he played a significant role in successfully navigating OSU Athletics through the COVID pandemic. Notably, he developed a partnership with the Oklahoma State University Center for Health Sciences that helped produce the planning and resources to keep Cowboy and Cowgirl student-athletes healthy, safe and ready for competition.

Weiberg was a key figure in several important initiatives that benefited student-athletes and fans alike. A little more than one year after Weiberg's arrival, OSU added a director of counseling and sport psychology position within the athletic department to better serve the mental health of student-athletes.

He also played a key part in improving OSU's gameday experience. Highlights include the addition of one of the largest video boards at a college-only football stadium, the addition of alcohol sales at OSU athletic venues and expanded concession offerings.

Weiberg is a 1994 OSU graduate with a degree in business administration. He earned a master's in business administration from OSU in 2002. After earning his undergraduate degree, he served as the director of corporate sales and donor relations for OSU Athletics until 1999. He served as senior director of field operations for the OSU Alumni Association from 1999-2002 before becoming the director of development for the OSU Foundation/College of Business Administration from 2002-03. He held a similar role for OSU Athletics from 2003-04 before moving to Kansas State.

At K-State, Weiberg served the KSU Foundation as Director of Corporate Relations for a year before becoming the Director of Major Gifts for K-State Athletics in 2005. Weiberg assumed the lead role for K-State Athletics' Ahearn Fund in 2009 and, for his team's efforts, was recognized as the National Fundraiser of the Year by the National Association of Athletic Development Directors in 2014. Weiberg was the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Development when he left K-State in 2015 to become Deputy Director of Athletics at Texas Tech University, a role in which he served for two years before returning to his alma mater in 2017.

College athletics have played a key role in Weiberg's life from an early age. His father, Mick, and brother, Brett were both college basketball head coaches and his brother, Jared, played basketball at OSU under Eddie Sutton for a year before moving into the role of team manager. Weiberg's uncle, Kevin, served as commissioner of the Big 12.

Weiberg and his wife, Jodi, have two children, Ella and Grant.

Olympic Medalists

Oklahoma State and the Olympic Games

Oklahoma State has produced 119 Olympians all-time and entering the 2024 Paris Games, 34 earned a medal - 21 gold, five silver and eight bronze.

OSU has been represented at every Olympic Summer Games in which the United States has competed in since 1924.

Oklahoma State has produced at least one medalist in 19 of the last 20 Olympic Summer Games in which the United States has competed since 1932. The lone exception was in 1972, when the Henry Iba-coached Team USA men's basketball team chose to not accept silver medals following a controversial result against the Soviet Union in the gold medal game.

Included among Oklahoma State's Olympic gold medalists are a quartet of two-time winners - wrestlers Yojiro Uetake and John Smith, men's basketball star Bob Kurland and softball pitching ace Michele Smith.

- The Learfield Directors' Cup honors institutions and evaluates success in all sports, men's and women's. The Directors' Cup allows athletic departments to measure the success of each sports program evenly and does not weigh the success in one sport above the success in another.
- Because Oklahoma State does not sponsor women's volleyball and does not get credit for its performance in equestrian, it has only 17 sports eligible for Learfield Directors' Cup scoring, while most others count points from 19 sports. Operating with a two-sport handicap, Oklahoma State has still finished in the top 25 nationally the last four years and has finished in the top three of the Big 12 each of the last six years.

Phillips 66 Bedlam Series

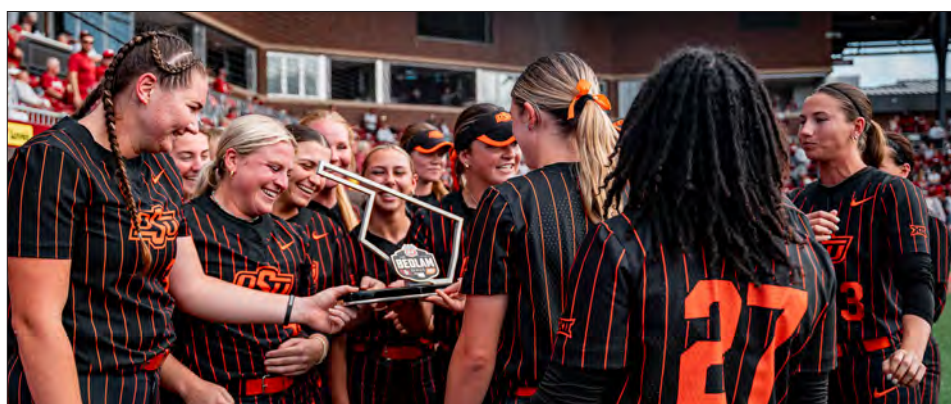

The Bedlam Series is calculated by straight wins and losses in head to head competition. In sports where there is no head to head matchup, the Big 12 Championship final standings are used.

While Oklahoma State and Oklahoma have been in competition for more than 100 years, the all-sports Bedlam Series did not come into existence until the 1999-2000 academic year.

Name, Image and Likeness and POSSE STAR Fund

Oklahoma State is at the very forefront of the Name, Image and Likeness era of college sports and has the accolades to prove it.

OSU was the only Big 12 school recognized as a national finalist for Best Institutional Program at the inaugural NIL Awards at the INFLCR NIL Summit in 2022.

OSU's reputation as an NIL leader was earned not through hype, but through planning and then executing a strategy that placed maximizing NIL opportunities for student-athletes as the top priority.

A sampling of what NIL looks like at Oklahoma State:

► OSU Athletics partnered with the renowned Spears School of Business to form the best-in-class Brand Squad – a group of business students who help connect OSU students with NIL partners at no cost to the students.

► OSU Athletics appointed Barry Hinson as Associate Athletic Director for Name, Image and Likeness – a new position geared specifically toward identifying and promoting NIL opportunities for its student-athletes.

► OSU partnered with industry leader Altius Sports to provide a national perspective and guidance to OSU's NIL programming.

► OSU partnered with the Brandr Group, One Team and Fanatics to create group licensing opportunities for its student-athletes, such as selling jerseys and other merchandise co-branded with official OSU marks and the student-athletes' name, image and likeness.

► OSU was an early adopter in helping student-athletes with their individual brand-building efforts through the use of professional-quality photos and videos.

► OSU provides ongoing rules education to the nonprofit collective Pokes with a Purpose, which pairs OSU student-athletes with local charities in a way that enables the student-athletes to use their name, image and likeness to raise awareness and funds for causes of their choosing.

► OSU Athletics has a standing NIL committee that meets weekly to identify, discuss and pursue NIL opportunities and partnerships that benefit its student-athletes.

► While it is not directly tied to NIL, OSU launched the POSSE Star Fund to provide student-athletes with additional education-related benefits including direct financial support in the form of academic achievement awards, up to the legally established maximum of $5,980 per year. In order to receive the full allotment, student-athletes must go through financial planning and education provided through a partnership between OSU Athletics and Simmons Bank.

Oklahoma State sprinter Tori Ortiz secured an NIL partnership with the WWE, among many others.

Student-Athlete Leadership and Professional Development

Every athletic department has a goal of winning championships, which is something we know a thing or two about here at Oklahoma State. A quick glance to the rafters in Gallagher-Iba Arena illustrates that.

But in addition to banners, developing the next generation of leaders away from the field is a priority for OSU Athletic Director Chad Weiberg, and he made that clear with a key hire just weeks after taking the reins as athletic director in 2021.

Jawauna Harding re-joined the OSU Athletics family to head up our Student-Athlete Leadership and Professional Development office, which is charged with building initiatives and programming focused on the OSU ideal graduate competencies of professional preparedness, ethical leadership, engaged citizenship, and personal responsibility. Additionally, she oversees impact initiatives for OSU Athletics.

Her goal is to enhance the student-athlete experience and prepare them for life after OSU. Through one-on-one meetings, guest speakers, experiential learning and special events, each student-athlete gains access to professional development tools and job search support.

"OSU student-athletes possess valuable skills sought after by employers," Harding explains. "They excel in teamwork, adaptability, and time management. They've been immersed in organizational leadership systems their entire careers. Companies should see the value in providing internships and jobs that help our athletes transition these skills into professional careers."

To achieve this, Harding added two additional positions. Assistant Athletic Director Tia Harring, who previously oversaw marketing and fan engagement, now focuses on student-athlete leadership development and established GoPokes Connect, a mentorship program pairing student-athletes with alumni-athletes.

Career Coach Lerin Lynch, formerly of the Alumni Association, helps student-athletes build their professional toolbox. This includes résumé development, career coaching, and essential professional skills.

"Investing in the holistic well-being of our student-athletes is paramount," Harding said. "Hiring Tia and Lerin strengthened our ability to better support student-athletes in their professional and leadership development."

While the department empowers student-athletes through the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) and community engagement projects, Harding seeks to expand employment options for them.

"Student-athletes have unique skills and unique schedules," Harding said. "Our next step is to find new, innovative ways to provide experiential learning for all our student-athletes."

Mental Health and Wellness

Oklahoma State student-athletes have access to Dr. Trevor Richardson, who leads a four-person team of trained mental health professionals dedicated to serving the needs of OSU student-athletes. Most schools have just one - if any - mental health professionals on full-time staff.

The team's approach to mental health is built through relationships and providing ongoing support.

"Around here, we like the old proverb of if you give a person a fish, you'll feed them once. If you teach them to fish, you'll feed them for a lifetime," Richardson said. "That's kind of how we approach mental health - we want to equip our people with knowledge and strategies they can use long into the future."

For Richardson, a two-time Oklahoma State graduate who joined the athletic department after more than 10 years on campus as part of OSU Counseling Services, being a mental health resource for OSU student-athletes is not just his profession, it's personal.

There is a misconception that seeking help in the area of mental health is a sign of weakness. Richardson said that is not the case.

"It's a sign of strength to ask for help in mental health because it shows you are secure in yourself," Richardson said. "This is about courage. People who take part in this process show courage and sometimes they view it as a sign of weakness because of what they've been conditioned to think. When you run from something that needs to be addressed, sooner or later it catches up with you. To sit down and take that big, scary, unpleasant thing on and talk with someone about it, that takes real courage."

Honoring Academic Success

The Oklahoma State Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award acknowledges the remarkable character and performance of one male and one female student-athlete. As the highest honor presented among OSU student-athletes, this award reflects exemplary performance in academic endeavors, athletic activities, and a commitment to community engagement. The award recognizes exceptional character of the student-athlete and a remarkable dedication to academic performance.

The award was initially presented in 1994 as the OSU Student-Athlete of the Year, but the title changed to OSU Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2015.

Remember the Ten

We Will Always Remember

On January 27, 2001, 10 members of the Oklahoma State Cowboy Basketball family passed away after a plane crash on the way home from a game at Colorado. To this day, the legacy of those Cowboys is honored. Each year, 10 OSU students are selected as Remember the 10 scholarship recipients and the charitable Remember the 10 Run generates significant donations to University Counseling Services.

The Cowboy Choice Awards

Maria Taylor hosted the inaugural Cowboy Choice Awards.

A Night to Shine

Oklahoma State student-athletes walk the orange carpet at the Cowboy Choice Awards, which has become a highly-anticipated event on the annual calendar, in part because of the awards themselves and in part because it is an opportunity for student-athletes from all sports to come together off the field for a fun and enjoyable evening.

Stillwater, Oklahoma

In the Heart of it All

Oklahoma State University serves nearly 25,000 students at its Stillwater campus, with 26% of the student body coming from out of state. Students from all 50 states and over 100 countries call Stillwater home.

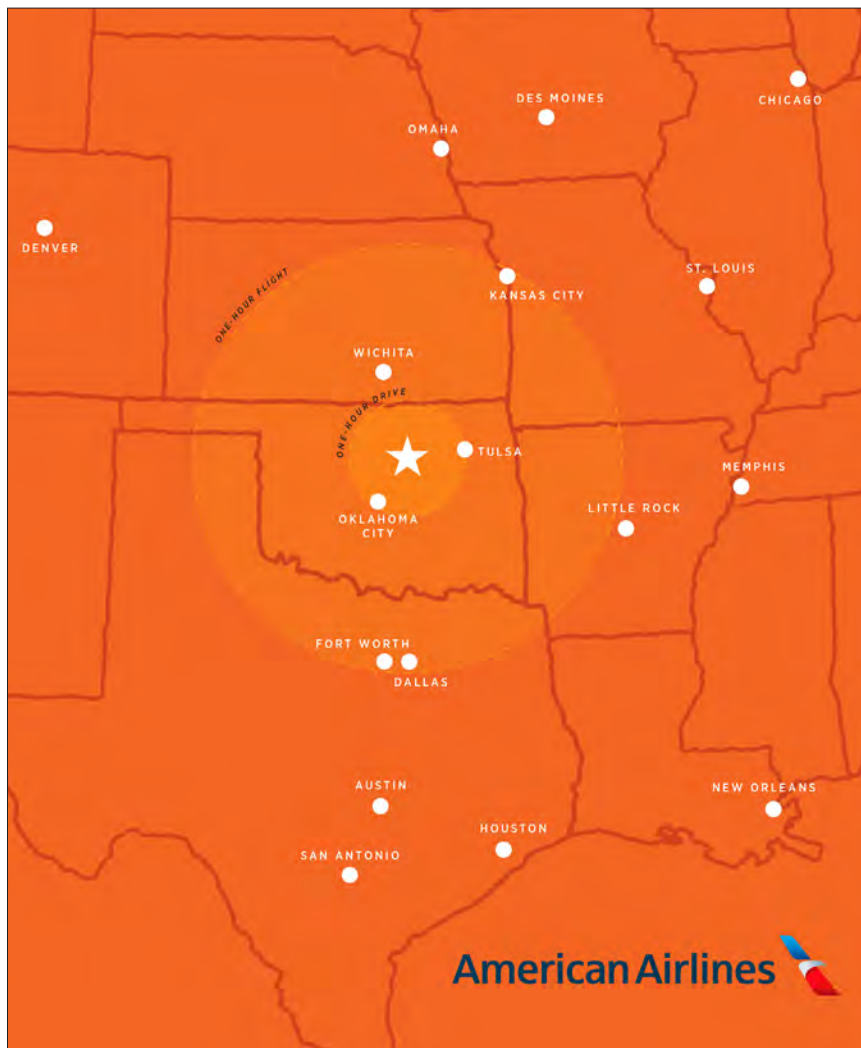

Stillwater is centrally located between Oklahoma City and Tulsa, just an hour's drive away from the two largest metro areas in the state of Oklahoma.

Stillwater Regional Airport provides daily nonstop American Airlines flights to and from Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport. A single one-hour connecting flight to DFW is all that separates OSU from traveling to New York, Los Angeles, London, Tokyo, Sydney and more of the world's greatest destinations.

Additional direct service to and from Stillwater may also be coming.

Stillwater Regional's 7,400-foot main runway can easily accommodate aircraft such as the Boeing 737 and Airbus A320, simplifying team travel for OSU and any opponents making the trip to Cowboy Country.

Further improvements to Stillwater Regional's facilities include a proposed expansion to the airport's terminal that would triple its current size.

Noting Stillwater

The population of Stillwater is about 50,000 and with Oklahoma State University as its heart, it comes as no surprise that approximately 50 percent of Stillwater residents age 25 years or older have a bachelor's degree.

Average Climate

Spring: 46-72 degrees
Summer: 69-91 degrees
Fall: 48-73 degrees
Winter: 26-50 degrees

Annual Precipitation

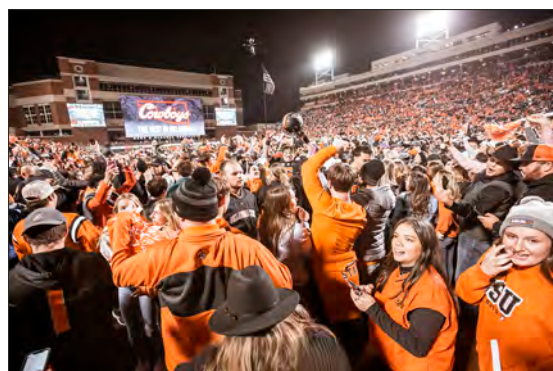

38.3 inches

Incredible Fan Support

Oklahoma State has a passionate fanbase that appreciates success across all sports and as a result, OSU enjoys an overwhelming advantage when playing at home.

America's Greatest Homecoming

OSU's very first Homecoming was held as part of the Harvest Carnival in the fall of 1913, but it wasn't until seven years later that the OSU Alumni Association hosted its first official Homecoming celebration. On October 30, 1920, 90 Oklahoma A&M alumni returned to Stillwater for festivities including the Aggie football game plus a dance and a dinner hosted by Alumni Association President Monroe Otey.

Of the 90 alumni in attendance, 50 were from the Stillwater area and 40 were from out of state. It was also in the '20s the now-famous tradition of house decorations began when sororities started to decorate their doorways.

In 1930, the first ever Homecoming Parade, a mile long, made its way down Main Street. More than 17,000 alumni returned to Oklahoma A&M that year to renew old friendships and show their pride in the Orange and Black.

In 1942 and 1944, Homecoming was combined with Dads' and Mothers' days and sponsored by the YMCA, YWCA, Dads' and Mothers' Day Association and the Alumni Association. The combination was a result of World War II and impending gas rationing to occur. Even with the gas rationing and cutbacks on parade floats, decorations and visiting bands, the football game and reunion functions were still well attended.

Following the war in 1946, there was a record attendance of 20,000 alumni and the largest parade was held including more than 50 floats, six bands and other community entries. Over time, the size of the house decorations overtook those of parade floats. In 1966, vehicles were abandoned and onlookers tried a new experiment - they simply "walked around" to view the decorations. Three years later, house decorations began being judged and scored.

New events like the Sign Competition, Football Frenzy and Chili Cook-Off were added in recent decades. Since that time, the event has grown and today is recognized as "America's Greatest Homecoming Celebration," drawing more than 80,000 alumni back to campus each year.

CASE International (Council for Advancement and Support of Education) has recognized OSU's Homecoming as a Seal of Excellence recipient. This is the highest award given by CASE in the field of Alumni Relations. This prestigious award is given only to programs that serve as models for others. OSU was recognized for the widespread participation and outstanding organization of its Homecoming program.

Most recently, the Homecoming celebration has launched onto the world wide web with photo albums, video highlights and live streams of Walkaround and the Sea of Orange Parade.

In 2010, the OSU Alumni Association began fundraising for the $3 million Homecoming and Student Programs Endowment as part of the $1 billion Branding Success campaign. OSU is one of the only schools left in the nation with an event like Walkaround, and once fully funded, the endowment will ensure future generations of Cowboys will be able to experience "America's Greatest Homecoming Celebration" as we know it today.

OSU's Homecoming is presented by the OSU Alumni Association and is planned by the student-driven Homecoming Executive, Steering and Big committees. OSU's Homecoming is a longstanding, exciting and colorful tradition for both campus and community.

Oklahoma State Spirit

The Cowboys

Dating back to the 1890s, Oklahoma A&M sports teams had been referred to as Agriculturists or Aggies, the Farmers, and officially but unpopularly, the Tigers. But by 1924, Charles Saulsberry, sports editor of the Oklahoma City Times, and other writers who regularly covered college events, had begun to refer to Stillwater's teams as the A&M Cowboys. Reporters' constant search of colorful synonyms started sprinkling Cowpokes, Pokes, Waddies, Cowpunchers and Punchers in conversation. "Cowboys" had a Southwestern flavor and flair that fit like a favorite pair of boots.

The Athletic Council authorized athletics director Edward C. Gallagher to have 2,000 balloons printed, "Oklahoma Aggies—Ride 'Em Cowboy" for sale at football games in 1926.

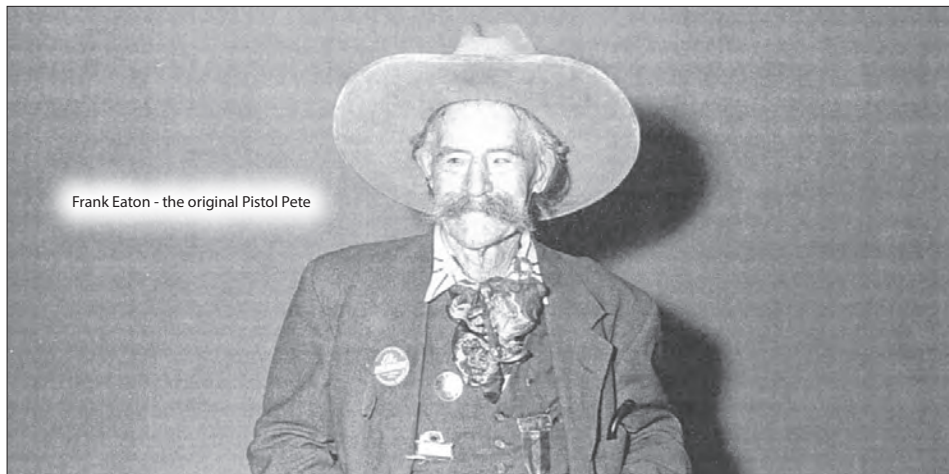

Pistol Pete

(excerpt from text written by Lance Millis)

Around 1923, when Oklahoma A&M College was searching for a new mascot to replace its tiger (copied along with the school's orange and black colors, from university founders who hailed from Princeton), a group of students saw Frank Eaton leading the Armistice Day Parade. He was approached to see if he would be interested in being the model for the new mascot, and he agreed. A likeness was drawn and began to be used on sweatshirts, stickers, etc., and a tradition was born.

That caricature was the basis for what is used today as the official Oklahoma State University mascot. For 35 years, the crusty old cowboy was a living symbol of OSU, representing the colorful past of the area. As such, he would attend OSU athletic events, building dedications, etc., and sign autographs, pose for photographs and reminisce about the Old West with anyone who would listen.

To this day, his likeness is a visible reminder of the Old West to literally millions of people yearly as a symbol of colleges whose mascots pay homage to the cowboy. Each year, OSU students tryout for

Frank Eaton - the original Pistol Pete

Pistol Pete. A panel of former "Petes" judge the tryouts and select the two best candidates based on an interview, a mime, and posing as mascot in different "game situations." The two who are selected split the approximately 500 appearances annually. These appearances include all athletic events, pep rallies, business openings, weddings, birthday parties, and public school events.

Frank Eaton - Before Pistol Pete

"My boy, may an old man's curse rest upon you, if you do not try to avenge your father...You must never stop until they are all accounted for!" These words, according to one of Eaton's many stories, were spoken by a family friend following the brutal murder of his father, and guided the formative years of Frank's life.

Born in 1860, in Hartford, Connecticut, Frank moved with his family to Kansas shortly after the close of the Civil War. When Frank was eight years old, his father, a former Union soldier, was shot and killed by a group of lawless former Confederates. Frank was a witness to the murder and each of the murderers' faces was imprinted in his memory.

After being challenged to avenge his father's death by Mose Beaman, (the family friend), Frank set out to learn how to handle guns. Mose gave him a gun and holster, and taught him how to handle and shoot guns. Frank quickly learned to "shoot a snake's head off with either hand". During the next few years, Frank's days were spent helping his mother with chores and practicing shooting. With each passing year, he became faster and more accurate with his guns.

When Frank was 15, he learned of the location of one of his father's killers. After deciding it was almost time to set out on his mission, Frank wanted to make sure his shooting skills were good enough. He decided to visit Fort Gibson, a cavalry fort, to try to learn more about handling a gun. There he competed with the cavalry's best marksmen, beating them each time. After many competitions, the fort's commanding officer, Colonel Copinger gave Frank a marksmanship badge and a new name. From that day forward, Frank would be known as Pistol Pete.

Bullet

The Oklahoma State University Cowboys have many symbols of their western heritage, but none is more appropriate than their mascot, Bullet. The Spirit Rider program debuted in 1984 with the first few Spirit Riders providing their own horse to serve as mascot for the OSU Cowboys.

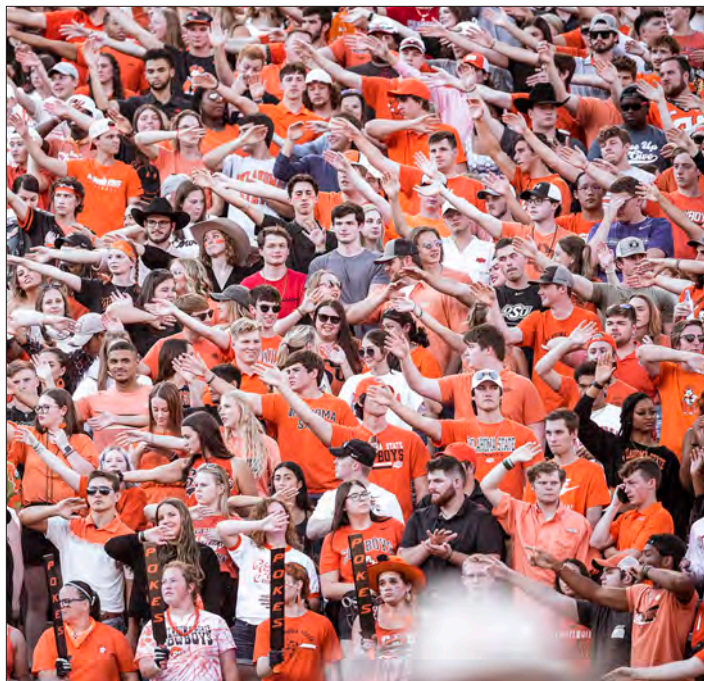

However, in 1988, Stars Parr Money was donated to the OSU Athletic Department to be used specifically as the mascot. Since that time, Bullet has delighted crowds with his traditional sprint across the football field following every Cowboy touchdown. The heart of the Cowboy Spirit Rider Program, Bullet is not only seen at Boone Pickens Stadium and other OSU football games, he's made appearances at local elementary schools, parades, rodeos and other special events, including the opening ceremonies of the Oklahoma State Special Olympics.

The tradition of the Spirit Rider can be attributed to the late Eddy Finley, who wanted to promote school spirit the "cowboy way," on horseback. Since that time, additional support has come for the Spirit Rider and Bullet, much of it due to Finley's hard work. A horse trailer, custom-tooled saddle and uniform dress for the Spirit Rider and ground crew have been donated to OSU. In honor of the Spirit Rider and its tradition, Jim Hamilton sculpted the Spirit Rider bronze statue that sits just south of the Greenwood Tennis Center.

Bullet is a regular part of the Cowboy football game day experience.

The Waving Song

Victor Herbert was inadvertently responsible for a deeply entrenched facet of A&M athletic tradition, the waving song. His lyricist was speech instructor H.G. Seldy Seldombridge. In 1908, Seldombridge had gone to Columbia University to scout for a senior class play. While there, he heard In Old New York, the hit song from the operetta The Red Mill. Even New Yorkers were humming the song on city streets, and Seldombridge returned to Oklahoma humming it, too.

Shortly thereafter, he incorporated In Old New York into the closing number of a college follies show being rehearsed in Stillwater's Grand Opera House. But as he studied the stage decorated in orange and black for a campus scene, he realized that New York's praises were out of place for a southwestern college setting.

"Suddenly OAMC flashed to my mind," he explained in 1941. He asked the 30-voice choir to take a break, grabbed a piece of wrapping paper, hummed, and scribbled. In less than ten minutes he had the alternate lyrics that would enliven sports events long after opening night.

For that finale, a letterman representing each sport joined the chorus onstage. The students added their own memorable touch. They swayed and sang "OAMC! OAMC! We'll sing your praise tonight," as they waved to the audience in unison.

It almost raised the roof off the old building, noted Seldombridge, who left the campus in 1910. Exhilarated, the crowd surged to its feet and returned the rhythmic wave. It took two encores before the campus and community gathering was willing to relinquish the emotion of the moment.

"From that night on, you could frequently hear someone whistling the tune," he recalled, touched that OAMC's waving song was remembered as late as 1941.

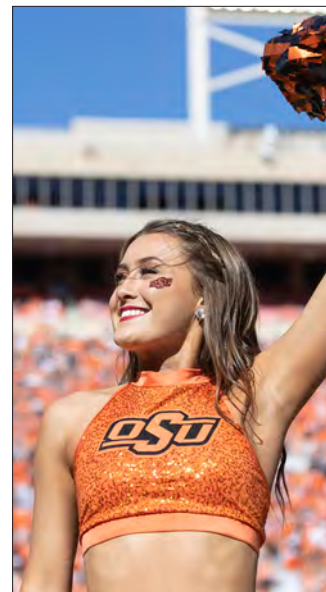

The Waving Song tradition continues to this day with OSU fans rising to their feet and waving one arm in rhythm with the song after scores in football and following victories in other sports. Contrary to popular misconception, this tradition should not be referred to as "Waving the Wheat," which is the name of the two-armed wave adopted by University of Kansas fans.

The Waving Song Lyrics

*Oklahoma State! Oklahoma State!
We'll sing your praise tonight;
To let you know where e're we go,
For the Orange and Black we'll fight
We'll sing your worth o'er all the Earth
And shout: Ki Yi! Ki Ye!
In books of fame we'll write your name,
Oklahoma State!*

"Ride 'Em Cowboys" Lyrics

*Ride, ride, ride, ride,
Ride'em Cowboys,
Right down the field!
Fight! Fight! Fight! Fight!
Fight'em Cowboys, and never yield!
Ride, ride, ride, ride,
Ride on, Cowboys, to victory;
Cross (opponent)s goal;
Then we'll sing 'O-kla-homa State!'*

OSU Alma Mater Hymn

Across several different sports, following victories, OSU teams gather in front of the student section to sing the alma mater. All fans, students and non-students are encouraged to remain in the stands after OSU victories and join the Cowboys for the Alma Mater hymn.

Alma Mater Hymn Lyrics

*Proud and immortal
Bright Shines Your Name
Oklahoma State
We Herald Your Fame
Ever You'll Find Us
Loyal and True
To Our Alma Mater
O - S - U*

OSU Athletics Vision Plan

Looking into the Future

Oklahoma State is strengthening its position within the national landscape of college athletics with the unveiling of the athletics facilities vision plan announced by Athletic Director Chad Weiberg.

The plan focuses on providing for the success of the student-athletes, improving the fan experience, and bolstering the University's ability to attract student-athletes across all programs through the creation of a unified and connected athletic village unrivaled in college sports.

Included in the plan are a new football operations center, a new wrestling training facility, a new softball stadium, an indoor track, a new training center for basketball, upgrades to the Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center and to Karsten Creek Golf Course and repurposed areas in the west end zone of Boone Pickens Stadium and Gallagher-Iba Arena for student-athlete services that include a new academics center and spaces for mental health, leadership and career development.

The athletics vision plan comes at an estimated cost of approximately $325 million. The implementation and order of construction will be determined as funding becomes available for each individual element.

"This is a time of conference realignment and unprecedented transformation in college athletics," Weiberg said. "With a history that includes 52 NCAA titles, for us to continue to achieve championship results, now is not the time to pause or rest on past accomplishments, but to honor those accomplishments by pushing forward and building upon what has been started. This vision plan provides a road map for the next phase of an athletics village that will be unrivaled in collegiate sports."

The plan is in its conceptual stages.

OSU Athletics Vision Plan

Human Performance Innovation Complex and Football Center

In December of 2022, Oklahoma State University announced its new Human Performance and Nutrition Research Institute with the goal of impacting every community in Oklahoma.

Due to available space and to maximize efficiencies, the institute headquarters will share a roof with the new operations home of Cowboy Football and will be located immediately adjacent to the existing practice fields and the Sherman E. Smith Training Center.

Sharing the same footprint will maximize efficiencies of key elements of the Human Performance And Nutrition Research Institute and Cowboy Football.

Vacated space in the west end zone of Boone Pickens Stadium creates tremendous benefits for student-athletes in every sport and accommodates an athletic department that has grown in recent years to include new areas dedicated to student-athlete success, mental and physical wellness, leadership and professional development.

While the institute itself is funded by the university, the Cowboy Football program will have its own space within the building paid for by athletics funds and private donations.

The 2009 upgrades to Boone Pickens Stadium played a significant role in OSU's rise to college football prominence. It also launched a larger mindset – one that Cowboy Football is truly capable of ascending to the highest level of the sport. This new facility provides an opportunity for OSU to reaffirm its commitment to being a national force moving forward.

Student-Athlete Success Center

The program areas currently occupied by OSU Football in the west end zone of Boone Pickens Stadium will be renovated following completion of Human Performance Innovation and Football Center. This includes both student-athlete and coaches/staff areas in the stadium which are currently located on the arena and lower club Levels.

The existing Student-Athlete Dining and Training Table would be expanded and renovated. Premium areas, including both club areas and seating and additional suites would be added, offering new seating types and amenities. Existing student-athlete support programs such as academic services, student athlete development and mental health could be relocated from Gallagher-Iba Arena to the stadium. Sports medicine, along with strength and conditioning could also be expanded and located in the west end zone, offering a central training and recovery space for all student-athletes.

In addition, offices and work areas for OSU Athletics creative teams, encompassing operations, graphic design, creative content and communications would be relocated to Boone Pickens Stadium.

Boone Pickens Stadium

Between 2003 and 2009, Lewis Field expanded and was officially rededicated as Boone Pickens Stadium on September 5, 2009. The expansion included adding nearly 4,000 club seats and 123 suites and connected the north and south by creating a continuous seating bowl in the west end zone. Over time the original seating on the north and south sides stadium bowl has required annual maintenance, resulting in increased repair costs, necessitating the replacement of the existing seating treads and risers. This need allowed OSU Athletics to plan the modernization and improvement of the fan experience in Boone Pickens Stadium.

Following the 2022 football season, work began on a two-year stadium project, beginning on the north side. That scope of work begins at the 200 level with the addition of a cross aisle to the existing seating treads and risers at the 300 level, expanding tread depths and new entrances. The project includes replacing benches, adding stadium seats in some sections, additional aisles, and adding handrails for safety. New intermediate aisles will be located between the existing entrances, reducing the amount of seating between aisles.

Following the 2023 football season, the south will be replaced in a similar fashion. The project includes new entrances at the lower 200 levels, replacing benches, adding stadium seats, additional aisles and adding handrails.

This renovation will keep the overall vision of Boone Pickens Stadium intact, marrying the north, west and south seating sections, and maintaining the existing 100, 200 and 300 level seating bowl levels.

OSU Athletics Vision Plan

Softball Stadium

The plan includes a new softball facility partially located on the former site of Allie P. Reynolds Stadium. The new home of Cow-girl Softball will provide modern amenities suitable for a premier collegiate softball program and will include championship caliber player-development areas. In addition, typical chairback seating, tailgating corrals, and family friendly areas to enhance the fan experience are planned.

Following the demolition of Allie P. Reynolds Stadium, the project will also create opportunities for additional parking for on-campus residents.

Indoor Track and Field

The men's and women's track and field programs support over 100 student-athletes. These athletes require year-round training and competition space. The vision plan proposes an indoor track and field facility south of the existing outdoor track and field complex. The proposed site is bordered by McElroy Road to the north, the Sherman E. Smith Training Center to the south, the Michael and Anne Greenwood Tennis Center to the west, and North Knoblock Street to the east.

This parcel of land is ideally sized for a full indoor track program. It will include a 200 meter banked track, indoor field event space, spectator seating, athletic training rooms, team meeting/theater spaces, locker rooms, player lounges, and offices for coaching staff.

In addition to strengthening training and development for the track and field programs, this new facility will act as a dynamic new recruiting tool for an already nationally prominent program.

Wrestling Practice Facility

Cowboy Wrestling is the most successful program in the history of the NCAA, regardless of sport. Entering the 2022-23 academic year, Oklahoma State wrestling had won 34 team national championships, 143 individual NCAA championships and had 475 All-Americans. The plan proposes an addition to the existing facility, which would support the ongoing success of OSU Wrestling.

While the program recently received an upgrade to its locker room, additional space is needed to sustain the success of the program.

This addition will increase the size of the wrestling room, allowing for additional mat space and championship-level team amenities. While the team will always compete inside the famous Gallagher-Iba Arena, the training facility will feature a dedicated space for spectators that will enhance recruiting and donor visits. This training facility will also house office and meeting spaces for the coaching staff.

OSU Athletics Vision Plan

Basketball Practice Facility

OSU's basketball programs have a rich history of success. Since the Cowboys' first game in 1908, OSU has won two national championships and appeared in six Final Fours. In the Big 12, only Kansas exceeds those totals. With 17 postseason appearances and three conference championships, the Cowgirls are continuing to build on an already-established tradition.

While having the benefit of utilizing the game court and backdrop of Gallagher-Iba Arena for practice can be an advantage for both programs, at times they are displaced during other athletic and campus events. A new practice facility is essential in helping both basketball programs continue to recruit, develop and train student-athletes to compete for championships.

The vision plan proposes an addition on the south side of the arena featuring two practice courts and other championship-caliber training spaces.

Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center

Building off the historic 2021-22 season in which the program captured its eighth Big 12 Conference title and its first overall NCEA national championship, several updates to Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center are planned.

Similar in size and scope to the Atherton Family Arena, an additional covered arena will be added to the Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center.

Currently the primary practice arena, the Atherton Family Arena is a 135x270 square foot covered arena. The team also uses the Totusek Indoor Arena, a 100x200 foot climate-controlled facility. The Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center consists of a saddling barn that includes coaches' offices, locker rooms, a tack room and an athletic training satellite office. It also has a 24-stall horse barn with outdoor runs and several paddocks and pastures. A new multi-purpose team building that includes a team lounge with study area and a fueling station was completed in 2021.

Karsten Creek Golf Course

Opened in 1994, Karsten Creek Golf Course was quickly named the "Best New Course" in the country by Golf Digest. The undulating fairways and challenging bunkers were originally created by renowned golf course designer Tom Fazio. Complementing the course are the clubhouse, three multi-level guest lodges, and a practice and teaching facility. While the course and related amenities have stood the test of time, renovations are needed to improve the facilities infrastructure, create a more challenging course, and enhance the skills of the student-athlete.

Course enhancement will include new irrigation, drainage, fairways, cart paths, and greens. Bunkers and tee boxes will be adjusted to increase the difficulty of play and advance the skills of the golfers. The practice facility will also be renovated to improve the tee boxes, landing zones, short game area and practice putting greens.

Originally constructed in 1997, the indoor practice facility will be upgraded to include state-of-the-art equipment.

Gallagher-Iba Arena Welcome Plaza

Since 1938, Gallagher-Iba Arena has been known as one of the great venues in collegiate athletics. Over time, however, the original east facade of the building has lost its unique prominence as the main gateway of the venue. This project seeks to revive this entrance, creating the welcome that OSU fans and athletes deserve. The plan also proposes adding premium parking and tailgating experiences to enhance the fan experience from the moment they arrive for an event.

The proposed Gallagher-Iba Welcome Plaza parking expansion will create approximately 250 new parking spaces nestled in a park-like setting.

In addition to creating parking, public plaza and walkway, fans will experience an arrival sequence similar to that of Boone Pickens Stadium. With new fan-focused offerings, OSU will have new opportunities to generate revenue.
